HAPPY CHILDREN.

How to Make Them so. Keep them in Health and They will Take Care of the Rest.

The joy of every well-regulated household comes chiefly from the children. Thousands of affectionate parents do not take care of their children. Through ignorance more than through culpable neglect they suffer them to fall sick and die, when knowledge might have saved them to love and home. Dr. David Kennedy offers his "Favorite Remedy" as an emphatically a medicine for the children—gentle in its action, containing no harmful ingredients, going straight to the blood, which, when impure, is the seat and source of disease. "Favorite Remedy" is the friend of childhood and should be found in every nursery in the land. Keep it in your house for your children's sake, as well as for your own. Try it. Make no mistakes. The medicine is "Favorite Remedy," and the proprietor's name address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. One dollar a bottle. Parties living at a distance, (except in single cases,) by sending a statement of their case can be treated at home.

MEREDITH MATTERS.

Mr. P. W. Henth has moved into his house on High st.

Men who live in glass houses should be conservatory in their opinions.

Fred Hawkins, who is engaged in the shoe business at Portland, Me., is at home for a few days.

Mr. H. R. Gould, formerly owner of a barber shop in this place, is now at work for D. A. Ambrose.

Mr. Charles H. Osgood, for several months past an efficient clerk for J. H. Osgood & Co., has gone to Lake Village.

More type and other material has recently been added to Robie's job office, and he is now better prepared to furnish anything in the printing line.

The recent cold weather has made some excellent skating for the younger portion of the community, and has been indulged in quite extensively for several days.

The grand Thanksgiving ball given at Town hall, Thursday evening, was a very enjoyable affair for those participating and a good number were present, both as dancers and spectators. Music was furnished by Dustin & Colby's orchestra.

Dustin & Colby, of this place, have united with Story's orchestra, of Laconia, forming a company of 13 pieces. It is well known here that Messrs. Dustin & Colby are musicians of recognized abilities, not only in our own community, but in places requiring greater proficiency to meet the wants of an exacting public.

Miss Lina Towle, Meredith's well-known elocutionist, gave a public reading in the Good Templars' hall Monday evening, but owing to the lack of proper notice it was not very largely attended. It proved an enjoyable affair, however, for those who did attend. Miss Towle leaves soon for Boston where she will spend the winter.

The Anthem Harp.

For Chorus and Quartet Chorus. By W. O. PERKINS, Mus. Doc. Published by O. Dison & Co.

THE ANTHEM HARP is a book of ordinary church music book size, and seems to contain an excellent variety of "Opening Pieces" or Anthems. It is designed to be a successor to "Perkins' Anthem Book" by the same author. As the former book was very popular, we may confidently predict good success for the new one. The Anthem Harp has 248 pages, and in the neighborhood of a hundred pieces. Not far from a quarter of these are Anthems of some length for special occasions, and there are about an equal number of "three page Anthems," "two page Anthems," and of short Sentences, Motets and Chants, which answer a good purpose when time is brief. One is pleased to see old "Jerusalem" revived from its long sleep, and provided with first-rate new music. "Savior, breathe an evening blessing," and a few other choice hymns, are preserved, but most of the words, as they always must be, are from the Scriptures.
